22nd ANNUAL FOLEY LECTURE: Hope On The Horizon... Advancements In Alzheimer's Research

Thursday, November 5, 2009
Montefiore, One David N. Myers Parkway, Beachwood
(off Cedar between Richmond & Brainard)

Featured Speaker

Dr. Maria C. Carrillo, Ph.D.

Director of Medical & Scientific Relations of the Alzheimer's Association

Dr. Carrillo, an expert on memory and author of several publications, has a wide range of responsibilities, including oversight of the association's granting process and communication of scientific findings within and outside the organization.

Dr. Carrillo also manages several initiatives including the Alzheimer's Association Research Roundtable which provides a forum for pharmaceutical companies to discuss trends in research and therapeutic targets. The Alzheimer's Association is the number one private funder of Alzheimer's disease research.

"Caregivers"

Seventy percent of people with Alzheimer's live at home and are cared for by family and friends. Through a collection of five portraits, this film shines a light on the sacrifices and successes made by people experiencing their loved ones' gradual descent into dementia.

1:30 – 2:30 pm:
Panel Discussion

This lectureship was established in 1987 by the Alzheimer's Association Cleveland Area Chapter to recognize Dr. Joseph Foley's invaluable contributions to individuals and families struggling with Alzheimer's disease.
